

BioCanRx HQP Travel Award

BioCanRx’s mission is to build and foster a network that accelerates Canada’s most promising biologically based cancer therapies into clinical trials. Canadian scientists, staff and students involved in the research and development of cancer biotherapeutics are central to achieving our mission, and we believe that staying current with the field and continually updating one’s skill sets are important to your personal success, the network and the entire field.

Program Deliverables

Distance should not prohibit you from developing your skills and career. BioCanRx HQP Travel Awards enable highly qualified personnel (HQP) to attend exciting and relevant learning and development opportunities, and are awarded on a competitive basis.

The objective of HQP Travel Awards is to lower barriers to participate in worthwhile learning and development initiatives offered by external organizations. Attendance at the proposed initiative is expected to benefit the applicant’s project/work responsibilities, professional development, their lab group/work team, and the greater BioCanRx network.

The HQP Travel Awards program has a rolling open deadline with the following deadlines and notification of award dates:
